“A Catholic school is not just a place where lessons are learned. It is a safe place where we are attentive to the needs of today’s youth and guided by the gospel message.”

WELCOME BACK!

On behalf of the entire faculty and staff at the School of Santa Isabel, we would like to thank you for the sacrifices you have made and continue to make for the future of your children. With all the uncertainties facing us in the today’s world, we are happy to be a part of one certainty. That is the hope and love our faith gives us. We thank you for choosing our school and allowing us to not only help your child grow in academics but also in faith and service to others. We look forward to serving our families this upcoming school year. We welcome the families from St. Mary’s.
